A long time ago there was a mayor named Thomas living in a small village, and he was a strict and honest man. He lived alongwith his wife Emily and his daughter Scarlett. Scarlett was in high school.

One dark night she went to her friend's house, while she was walking Scarlett heard a strange noise coming from the distance. She went to follow the noise in concern. While she was walking, she fell into a pit and shouted for help.

Two people ran towards her and pretended to help Scarlett, but they were actually trying to kidnap her and steal her belongings. After she climbed up, they blindfolded her and abducted her in a van. Scarlett was in a shock and realising what's happening to her.

Scarlett's parents waited and searched for her and when she did not come back, they went to the police and complained about their missing daughter. Police officers searched everywhere and they could not find her. They found her kerchief and few other items near the place where she got abducted. They understood that something wrong had happened to her and alerted all police.

Scarlett was listening to their conversations, and she felt the route they were travelling in, was familiar. She luckily had her mobile phone in her pocket, but she couldn't handle it as her hands were tied and she couldn't speak to the helpline as they would have gotten to know.

She got an idea and pressed the SOS button on the phone and the call got connected to Police helpline, she then started speaking to the kidnappers bravely so the police could hear her. She asked, "Do I know you guys?" they didn't answer. She said to them, "I think you are mistaken. I am Scarlett, Mayor's daughter". "Where are you taking me?" and she mentioned the street name and the travelling route as if she was asking them so that the police could understand where they were going.

The police got the details, and they alerted the nearby police patrol to search for the vehicle with the two people. After a while they caught the kidnappers and saved Scarlett from them.

The kidnappers were Mark and John, who were working with Thomas earlier. They said to the police that Thomas fired them as they got caught asking for bribery and they did this to get revenge on him. Police arrested them and put them in jail.

Scarlett escaped due to her presence of mind and braveness. Staying calm and clever in the critical situation helped her to escape. She lived happily ever after with her parents.
